

One I need

Intro E A E E AE
Left you on an inbound train, Hoping I'd see you again

 E A E E A
Every night I got on my knees, To beg you God, oh, beg you please, ...Bring me the OIN

Verse 1 E A E E A E
Y'deep brown eyes they set ablaze, Throw my soul into a maze

 E A E E A E
And on my heart there lies a void, You may repair a heart once destroyed

Verse 2 E A E E A E
Fold my hands at the eve of night, In hopes one day they'll be held tight

 E A E E A E
Remember what you used to feel, And I can show you that love is real

A Southern Trip

C 1 G C G D
The music down here serenades, when pollen falls it marinates, life is better when its never really cold

G C G D G
Say hey to all your neighbors when you ask about their labors they say bossman's got me till im 65 y/0

V 1 G C G D
Twisting and turning, my conscience is yearning just to slip away

G C G D G
Blank silhouettes spin like magic webs then vanish to my dismay

V 2 G C G D
Take a southern trip with me an appalachian curiosity cured with purely gasoline and time

G C G D G
Lights that we see an Atlanta jamboree a supernatural paradigm

C 2 G C G D
The music down here serenades, when pollen falls it marinates, life is better when its never really cold

G C G D G
Say hey to all your neighbors when you ask about their labors they say bossman's got me till im 65 y/0

V 3 G C G D
Dixie caleidoscope that collides with hope it fills your veins with love

G C G D G
Oh the paintings will dance while you lay in a trance with thrills that reign from above

V 4 G C G D
Wrestle with reason a reality treason betray the way you see

G C G D G
Your sights 20-20 three eyes is plenty the truth will set you free

C 3 G C G D
The music down here serenades, when pollen falls it marinates, life is better when its never really cold

G C G D G
So take a southern trip with me an appalachian curiosity before we get too damn old

G C G D
V 5 Onward from Atlanta on down to savannah all the way to miami beach

G C G D G
Then back up appalachia those mosquitoes we hate ya still we climb every single peak

G C G D
V 6 Carolina is a friend to me love the grass from tennessee virginia makes a really nice cap

G C G D G
Alabama mississippi got rid of all the hippies wearing make america great again hats
